January - September 2005 Humphrys' Education Ltd, London

Schools' Advisor - placing children in schools internationally, liaising with both schools and parents. Roles also included the organisation of volunteers for the BearingPoint Rowing World Cup 2005 and IT support for the company. I re-branded the company, including logo, stationery and website.

September 2004 - January 2005 Menza Communications, London

PR, Marketing & IT Assistant. Tasks involved the distribution of press releases and their follow up, ghost writing of technical articles, writing copy for exhibition posters and flyers and liaison with the press on two different accounts. I improved the office's IT structure and produced e-newsletters for clients. I redesigned the company's web site.

August 2002 to August 2003 3M Healthcare, Clitheroe, Lancashire

Manufacturing Engineer (Industrial placement year as part of my degree). Roles included improving manufacturing efficiency & quality assurance, staff training & the design of shop floor paper work. My main project was to analyse and subsequently redesign the measurement process for one of the components made on the site.

June to August 2001 People and Places Architects, Lewisham

Assisted in constructional surveys on houses and created plans for design work. Office administration

September 2000 Bromley Youth Music Trust

Assistant at a music course for children between 6 and 15 years. Assisted in their tuition during the day, and was responsible for organising entertainment during their recreation.

Hobbies & Interests

I have always had a strong interest in music. I have played the tuba ever since I was 10 and bass guitar since I was 15. For 4 years, up until I left school, I played in several types of ensembles, and toured extensively with them to Europe and North America. Whilst at university I continued to play in several classical and jazz ensembles and was a member of several brass bands in Lancashire during my placement year. I continue to play in the XBY Concert Band (for those who have left the Bromley Youth Concert Band), the Eltham College Community Orchestra, and several other amateur orchestras in London.

I have recently travelled to China, across the USA, and have inter-railed over Europe. I am a keen amateur photographer and very much enjoy cooking.
